Library Management System

Students can search books, borrow up to three at a time, and renew online.

Librarians add new books and track overdue returns with email reminders.